Organizations Working for Justice

We encourage you to begin with your own community of faith or spiritual tradition! Find ways to connect with or promote actions for justice, compassion, peace and the environment, and invite others to join you. We need everyone!

The service tonight is hosted by Multifaith Voices for Peace & Justice (MVPJ). Visit www.multifaithpeace.org to learn more about us. Please consider signing up for our email list. Use the box in the top right corner of the website. This is a monitored list that is only used for MVPJ sponsored or related events and calls to action, with emails rarely more than once a week, and often just monthly. To learn how to get your congregation or organization more involved, contact info@multifaithpeace.org. Let’s strengthen our partnerships!

The following is a broad list of organizations that have been suggested to us as worthy of consideration in these times. We know that not all communities endorse all the groups on this list, nor does this list represent official endorsement of any organization by Multifaith Voices for Peace & Justice. And there are surely many other wonderful and worthy organizations that do not yet appear on this list. These are for your consideration only.
