

A Glee at Christmas

Henry Lawes (1596-1662)

S

1. 'Tis Christ-mas now, 'tis Christ-mas now, When Ca - to's self would laugh, And
2. And for the Twelve days, let them pass In mirth and joll - i - ty: The
3. And from the Ris - ing of the Sun To th'Set-ting, cast off Cares; 'Tis smooth - ing forth his wrink - led brow, Gives lib - er - ty to Quaff, To Time doth call each Lad and Lass, That will be blithe and mer ry, Then time e - nough when Twelve is done To think of our Af - fairs. Then

B

5

9

Dance, to Sing, to Sport and Play, For ev - 'ry hour's a hol - i-day.
Dance, and Sing, and Sport, and Play, For ev - 'ry hour's a hol - i-day.
Dance, and Sing, and Sport, and Play, For ev - 'ry hour's a hol - i-day.

